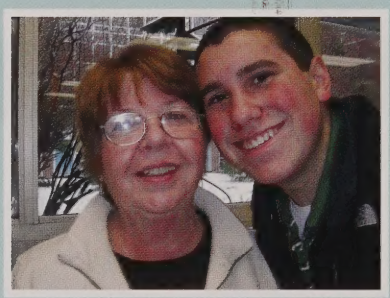
Dedication: Mrs. Susan Fay

Mrs. Susan Fay is a hardworking teacher with integrity and a comprehensive knowledge of her subject matter, history. She has taught in the Waltham school district for thirty years. However, history isn't the only thing that Mrs. Fay has taught her students. Mrs. Fay encouraged her students to step out of their comfort zones and has rigorously demanded their best work and effort on every assignment, paper, project, and discussion.

Mrs. Fay brought a balance of work and laughter each day into her classes. A student noted that for her, history has always been a dry topic, but Mrs. Fay's humor and engaging personality made the subject more enjoyable. Mrs. Fay's primary concern was never a student's grade; instead it was what the students learned that was essential.



Mrs. Fay isn't only a great teacher, but a great friend to rely on. Students recall many times where they would stay after class and talk to Mrs. Fay about the outside world around them. Mrs. Fay has reminded us to look carefully at our actions and character, providing each of us a great example to follow. It is with great honor that this year's Mirror is dedicated to a woman who has given so much of her time to our school and our community.

Debbie Jean-Phillipe
Business Manager of The Mirror

Mrs. Fay has taught countless students over the years, and while I am only one, I feel that my exerience is universal in telling of the kind of teacher she is.

I had the privilege of being taught by Mrs. Fay in my sophomore year US History I class. At the time I was very quiet, but Mrs. Fay brought me out of my shell, whether she realized it or not, and made me a more productive member of our class. Her guidance allowed me to grow from timid to strong, developing a mature voice that will undoubtedly carry on through college and into any career path I chose to follow.

Though the work load and expectations were often intimidating and daunting, Mrs. Fay taught us to be proactive and take the difficult things in front of us and confront them head on. Her life lessons weaved seamlessly with her notes and lectures, so at once we were learning about our country's history and our individual futures.

She taught us not only history, but also its effects on us today, and how the choices leaders or individuals made will affect us for years to come.

It is with great honor that we dedicate the 2012 Mirror to Mrs. Susan Fay.

Editor of The Mirror

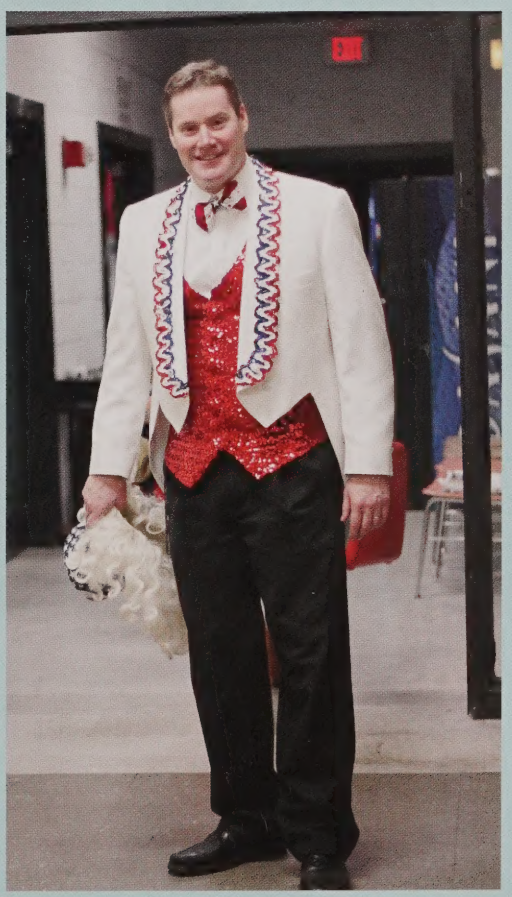
Recognitions and "Thank Yous"

Mr. Stephen Duffy - Senior House Master

It is a great honor to recognize a person who has guided us over the past four years and made our transformation into young adults an easy one. He graduated from Waltham High school in 1986 where he was a varsity athlete in both football and Lacrosse. After graduating he attended Westfield State College where he continued his athletic success on the football field. After college he returned to his roots and started teaching history and coaching lacrosse at the high school. In May 2009, at the end of our freshman year Mr. Duffy was appointed Housemaster for the Class of 2012.

Buzz Light-year once said, "To infinity, and beyond." Mr. Duffy's striking resemblance to Buzz Light-year is a remarkable one. But what is more noteworthy is the way Mr. Duffy has shown us that the sky is the limit. For as long as we can remember Mr. Duffy has always been there for us. Whenever we needed someone to talk to about our classes, peers, or college, Mr. Duffy's door has always been open. Although he is a lot bigger than most of us, and is more than capable of intimidating anyone in this room, Mr. Duffy treats us as equals, always demonstrating the utmost respect.What is most impressive about Mr. Duffy is the amount of support he has given us over the years. You can always find him hiding somewhere at the field, rink, or auditorium. Although he can't make it to every game or show, everyone knows that he will almost always participate in fundraisers for clubs or sports teams. Not only is he a member of our cheering section, he also has devoted his time to create a high school experience that we will never forget. I will always remember seeing him sing and dance in an Uncle Sam costume at senior revue. Since then he has been busy planning our various senior events: senior dinner, senior prom, the All Night Party, awards night, and most importantly our commencement ceremony. Without him none of these events would be possible.



Mr. Duffy we thank you for everything you have done for us, it will never be forgotten. Your guidance through our high school years has given us the tools we will need to further our success in the future. Thank you from the Class of 2012.

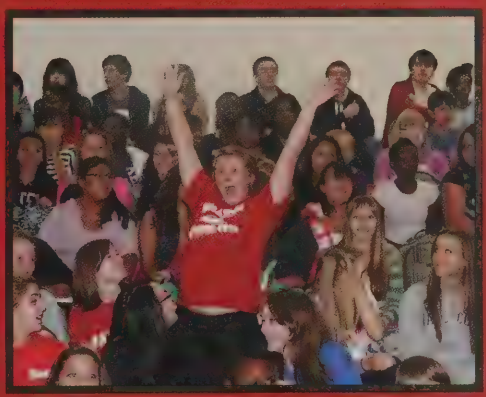
RALLY 2012

The September 16th Pep Rally included girls and boys soccer, football, cheerleading, golf, volleyball, cross country and field hockey . The eight sports teams came out dancing to their own music and the crowd went nuts as the captains led their teams into the gym. The Hawk mascot fired up the crowd by dancing around the gym.



Varsity Football

WALTHAM HAWKS

The 2012 Varsity Football team kicked off the season with a victory over Newton-South. The Hawls were down with less than a minute left in the game, when senior quarterback Kyle Nocera threw for a touchdown, alllowing the Hawks to take the lead. After this amazing victory, the Hawks were clearly well prepared by their new head coach, John Bourque. Despite their unbalances record of 4-6, the 11 seniors and strong underclassmen brought the team together.

"Despite our overallrecord this season, I'm proud of the progress we made and the senior leadership we had."

Spirit Week

PINK monday. TIE-DYE tuesday. WACKY

Waltham High students were colorful, crazy, and enthusiastic to participate in the Fall 2011 "Spirit Week." Originally, the idea of spirit week was concieved on the basis of getting students involved and excited for not only the new school year, but for all the events and sporting events approaching. Student council arranged a schedule Monday through Friday that gave themes to the days of the week. Students dressed up everyday according to the schedule, and got excited every morning going to school in "out of the norm" attire. The result? A pumped up school!

Girls' Volleyball

The Volleyball 2011 season was unlike any other. This squad of 12 girls came into the gym on August 25th with a more up-beat and winning mentality than in previous years. Practices consisted of short court, rotating fours, serve and run, chinese pepper and scrimaging. They came together on the court to accomplish one goal: to win. The Concord-Carlisle game will never be forgotten when they came out on top in the fifth set and won their first game in over a year. Overall, the varsity volleyball team won four games. Not enough to bring Waltham to tournament, but definatley an improvement from previous years.

Hairspray

The Waltham High School Drama Department turned back time to the 60's with the Broadway classic Hairspray! The all-star cast, comprised of students from every grade, created the quirky characters and brought the musical to life. The colorful musical follows the trials and tribulations of the eccentric Tracy Turnblad, played by senior Yaznil Baez, as she works to break any and every social barrier running rampant throughout Baltimore. During Tracy's crazy adventures, she gets herself and all of her friends thrown in jail, captures the heart of Baltimore's teen heartthrob, and makes some new friends on the way.

Homecoming Game

This year Homecoming Game was on October 29th. The Hawks played against Acton Boxborough Colonials. This was the last home game motivating the Hawks to defeat the Colonials. Even in the rain, the Hawks never gave up. The Colonials were advancing as well making the score at halftime with 28 to 0. The second half was when the Hawks came back with avenge and junior, Jacob Dufrene scored a touchdown. Although the Hawks lost, they left everything they had on the field.

"It was a tough game but with all the laughter, cheering, and smiles flying around, how could someone be negative that day?"- Keana Danier

" Although we lost it was great to see waltham high school students and staff come out and support their team even in the pouring rain".- Debbie Jean-Philippe

"Even though it was post poned, the lip sync had a really good turn out."- Amy Goguen

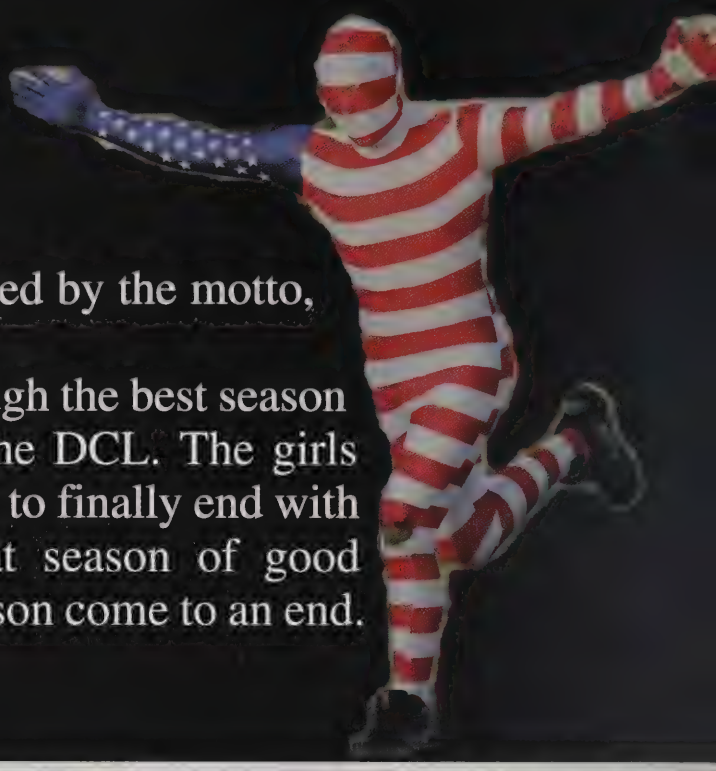
Homecoming Dance

Despite having to reschedule the homecoming dance because of a sudden snow storm in October, our annual WHS homecoming dance on November 19, 2011 was a great success. The cafe was festive with school spirit decorations. Captains of the sports teams lead their teams as well as other couragous students in the lip sync. It was a close call between Derrick "D-Bo" Bonnah and the football team, but the football team came on top, winning the lip sync. Over all it was a good turn out, and students enjoyed the night.

"Performing at the homecoming dance in front of my friends was the best experience ever."- Derrick "D-Bo Bonnah

"It felt good to have a back to back win as homecoming king along with Keana."- Darius Holloway

Girls Soccer



The girls soccer team always played by the motto, Pride Inegrity and Courage.
These strong words led them through the best season for the Lady Hawks to have in the DCL. The girls played their hearts out every game to finally end with a record of 5-7-1. After a great season of good memories it was sad to see the season come to an end.

It was very exciting to be chosen as a junior captain this year for the varsity team. I'm excited to start my senior year and see how far this team can go.
-Maria Baras

It's going to be strange going to college next year and not coming to play with this team. We had a great year I'm going to miss each and every one of the girls.
-Michelle Kudlate

i have played with these girls since kidergarten, i cant' believe we'll never play as a team again. so sad.

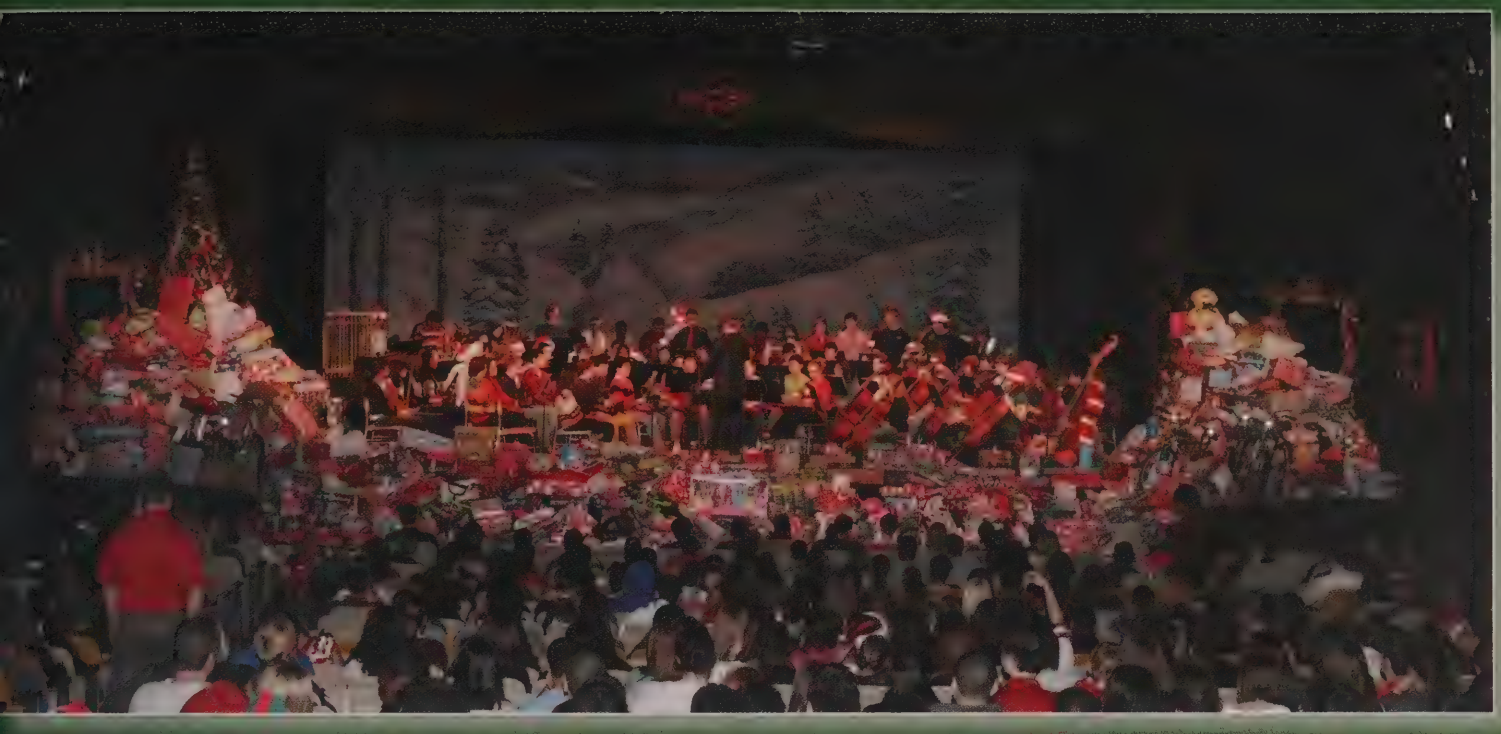
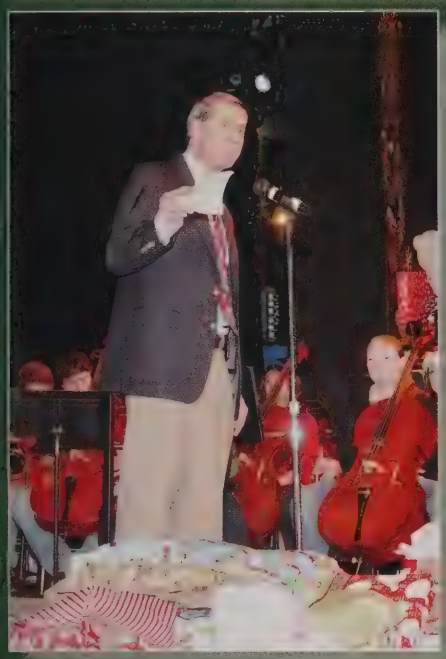
STUDENT SANTA

On December 15th, the annual Student Santa took place. This year Waltham High had over 300 students to give presents too. Many clubs, classes, and sports took it upon themselves to adopt a child and to shop for the gifts. This year was very successful because every child had a group, a week before all the gifts were due. The Christmas spirit was in the air with the orchestra, band and show choir performance as well as the Christmas music playing in every classroom. However, this year the Reagle Players put on a Christmas show started by former high school student. The proceeds from the show went to Student Santa, which created more gifts for children.

"Student Santa shows how the school can come together for the common goal of giving back to the community"- Anthony Cacciatoire

"We always say there's two major goals: One is to help so that no child has Christmas morning without gifts. The other is to create a spirit of lifelong giving in kids." -Mr.Goodwin





Girls Ice Hockey

Being a young team and coming into the season with a new coach did not stop the Girls Hockey team from reaching the goal any team wants, making the tournament. The hockey team is such a close group of girls and their relationship helped lead them to their successful season. Working hard through the whole season allowed them to win their last game against L.S., making the tournament and ending the season with a record of 7 - 9 - 2. They lost their first game in the tournament to Algoquin/Hudson by one point.

"The close friendship we all shared together as a team helped push each other and our hardwork payed off for a great season. We have a great friendship and I' really going to miss playing hockey next year."

Boys Hockey 2012

The 2011-2012 hockey season was unforgettable. Captains Jack LeClair, Tyler Trelegan and Chris Maguire led the team toward a common goal. Their record was 4-12-4. Although they did not make it to the State Tournament, the boys persevered and worked hard all season. The team had a once in a life time oppurtunity to skate at Frozen Feneway with the East Coast Jumbos, a special needs team they help coach on weekends. The twelve seniors on the team guided the team with positive attitudes, they were able to have a great season. The seniors wish the underclassmen the best of luck in upcoming years.

Manuary

MAN

Moustaches may have gone out of style in the 1980s, but you wouldn't have known it by visiting Waltham High School in January.

From Mr. Hunt's Burt Reynolds impersonation to guidance counselor Mr. Cox's homage to Tom Selleck, some of the school's faculty members sported the past-its-prime facial hair. But don't get this confused with a fashion statement. The teachers and paraprofessionals participated in a month-long fundraiser, to raise money for prostate cancer research.

Mr. Hunt, who had a moustache that straddled the line between too think and too thin, said he was trying to bring the look back, despite reactions from students and other teachers who tell him it's "creepy."

"My wife was not very happy with it," said Mr. Hunt. "I figure if I can donate to a good cause and irritate my wife at the same time, it's always a good thing."

The special education teacher had a number of beard-themed pictures taped to the door of his classroom including ones of Gerard Butler from the movie "300," and Zach Galifianakis from the movie "The Hangover."

The idea for Manuary came from the national Movember movement, where men grow out moustaches to raise money for prostate cancer research. That fundraiser takes place in November, but Mr. Rickles thought it would be better to host it in January.

"January was an ideal time to do something like this because it's a long month, and usually a cold and dreary month," said Mr. Rickles, who spearheaded the Manuary fundraiser.

Students voted for the person they believed had the best facial hair by buying a ticket for $1. All of the ticket purchases went toward a fund that was donated to the Prostate Cancer Foundation.

Unlike Movember, however, the faculty was allowed to grow out all sorts of facial hair, from goatees and handlebar moustaches to full beards.

Also, faculty members each put in $20 to enter the competition ($40 if they already had pre-existing beards) and each bought a Manuary t-shirt for $10.

UARY

Mr. Duffy said the school raised close to $3,000 total as part of Manuary. To better their chances of winning the friendly competition, some teachers added gimmicks.

Mr. Hacker gave his students a chance to vote for what color they wanted him to dye it. Other teachers gave students incentives to vote for them by offering to shave their beard in strange patterns. Mr. Rono offered to don the "Franz Joseph," named after the one-time emperor of Austria-Hungary, and consisting of a full beard without the part directly under the mouth. Mr. Hazel told his students he'd sport the Abraham Lincoln, a contiguous u-shaped beard around the face.

Perhaps the most drastic decision came from Mr. Rickles, who decided to shave his beard off entirely if he raised $500. He hadn't shaved since 1998, which means his wife had never seen him clean-shaven.

"I'm kind of a shaggy looking guy to begin with," said Mr. Rickles. "In part out of laziness and in part because I like having a beard."

On one day when Mr. Rickles was out sick, Mr. Hazel and Mr. Whiteley launched an all-out marketing blitz to get to the $500 mark. By the end of the day, they eclipsed their goal.

"It's very positive," Rickles said. "If nothing else, people think it's funny."

One of the faculty members who received the brunt of the ridicule was Mr. Cox, whose office had a sheet of paper taped to it with images of Tom Selleck sporting his trademark moustache from the 1980s show "Magnum, P.I.," Will Ferrell playing the character of Run Burgundy in the movie "Anchorman," and Ned Flanders from the "The Simpsons."

"It's the first moustache I've ever grown, so I wasn't sure what it would look like," he said.

"It was fun for the first two or three weeks, but now it's kind of wearing off," he said.

"(Prostate cancer) is not something you hear about quite as much," he said. "But any form of cancer (research) is a worthy cause."

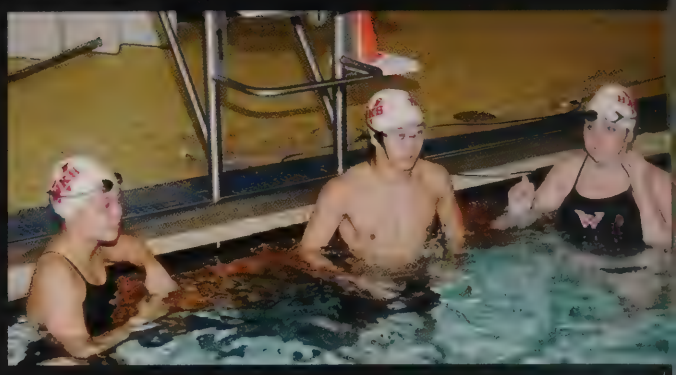
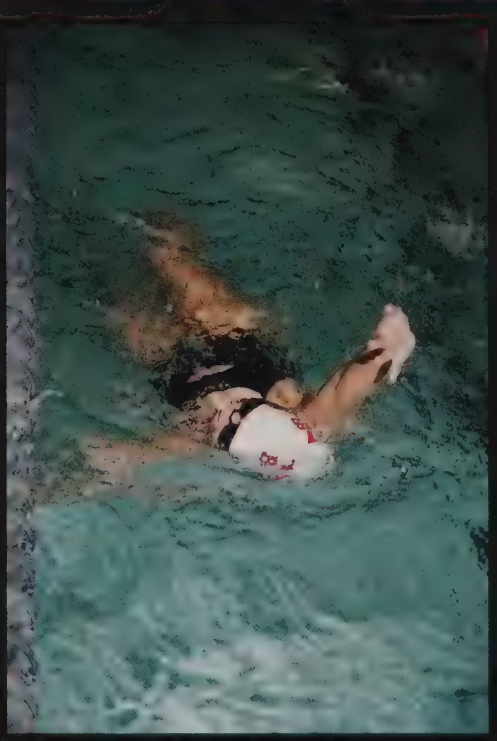
This year's team worked hard towards reaching a common goal. Although the season did not go as well as planned, they remained strong and bonded well through out practices and meets. Captains Heinz Lam and Cindy Lee demonstrated good leadership all through out the season. It was a challenge but everyone did outstanding, and broke nearly impossible personal records.





"I couldn't ask for more loyalty, determintation or hard work from my teammates. Being part of a varsity team to go to sectionals and having everyone break several seemingly impossible personal records has been an honor. I can't thank Coach Gavin, Coach McCue and my teammates enough for making this season such a memorable and significant part of our lives.

"It was a fun season and there was a lot of accomplishments made. Although our record may not have been the greatest, it does not reflect the love and determination the team has shown. We had fun and we worked harder than most people believe, but most importantly we grew as a team and I will never forget those accomplishments or the people who made them. I love my swim team."

Class of 2012

"SEEEEEENIOOOORS!" The chant began during Show Week, late March 2012! Who would have thought our Senior Class would have over 135 performers join our fair-well performance at WHS? This amount is over 1/3rd of our total graduating class actually UP ON THAT STAGE!! If we include (and we MUST include) our crews, videographers, graphic designers, digital photographers, and all participants behind the scenes, our grand total soared well over 155, which is HALF our Senior Class. Everyone made "America Coast to Coast" a huge success. What this annual production embraces is a unique, all inclusive diversity that features talents of the "regulars," as well as those who have not made the stage part of their High School Experience. It is this unique blend that creates a bonding, special to those lucky enough toperform and share this memory! In less than two short months, trust, respect and unity gave way to creative madness! Who could forget Mr Duffy's guest appearances, as well as our gifted MC's, Dancers and Singers? We thank our Directors for this amazing opportunity! We are truly "UNSTOPPABLE!" -- Deb

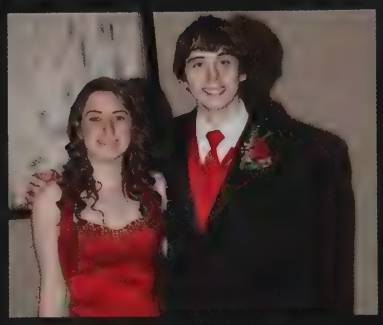
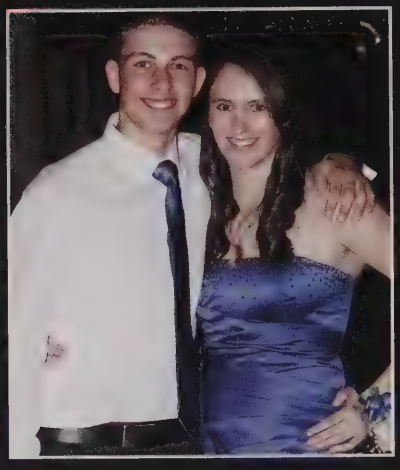
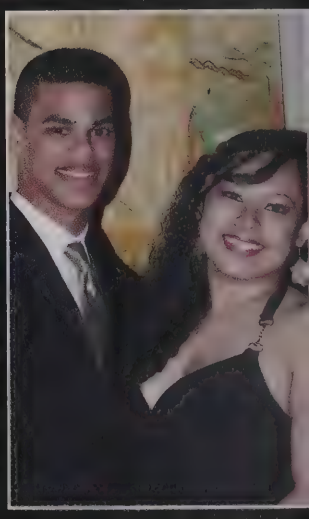
"Prom was great! Hopefully next year will be even better!"- Maria Millan





"It was an unforgettable night with my best friends."- Emily McGann



Junior Prom

This year, the Junior Prom was held on April 29, 2012 at the Westin Hotel in Waltham. Students enjoyed spending the night dancing and having fun with friends. Juniors had the pleasure of enjoying great food while singing and dancing the night away with dashing dates from all the grades at WHS. Housemaster, Mrs. Brennan called the night successful and it left the juniors excited for their senior prom next year.

"Everything leading up to it was so stressful, but in the end it was worth it! Prom was definitely a night I'll always remember."- Vy Tran

The Paper Chase

In contrast with the year's up-beat musical, the spring play took on a more serious note displaying the trials and tribulations of attending Harvard Law School. The play follows a select few students who struggle to keep up with the heavy workload given by one of the hardest professors the school has to offer. While most crumble under the pressure, few manage to stand out and flourish in their exams. However, nothing is ever as easy as it seems when trying to balance school and a social life.

Showchoir

Over the 2011-2012 school year, the Waltham High show choirs traveled to competitions around the state, winning many golds for their efforts. In the spring, they even traveled to New York City, where they competed against show choirs from around the country. An excellent year was capped off at the Show Choir Show, where all of the members were able to showcase their dancing and singing abilities.

DEVON,

Chico. Through all of the tough times, good times, sad times and laughs, it's been the absolute best ride ever: Watching you grow from a chubby-cheecked kid to the amazing man you are now. We know you'll greet and surmount all of the challenges ahead of you with the same abilities and character that have always allowed you to come out on top. Can't wait to see your success in this exciting next chapter of your life. We love you and are so proud of you.
Love, Michelle and Dad

Congratulations, I am so proud of you!
Love,

Dear Devon,
Bob Dylan said it best:

May God bless and keep you always.
May your wishes all come true
May you always do for others
And let others do for you
May you build a ladder to the stars
And climb on every rung
May you stay forever young

Love, Nanna & Steve

Devon, from the day you were born, you were behind every smile I've ever had. You have taught me what true joy and happiness is. No one can make me laugh like you! There is no Mother on this planet that could possibly be as blessed as I am. I am so proud of you D and I know that you are going to be incredible person. Thank you for being the wonderful son you have been! I LOVE YOU..... MOM

Thank you for always making us laugh, we love you sooo much!
CONGRATULATIONS!
